

Tim Cash

Tim Cash is an Assistant Branch Chief in EPD's Watershed Protection Branch where he is responsible for ensuring an integrated approach to water resource management in the Chattahoochee and Flint River Basins. He has over 26 years of experience working with EPD overseeing the development and implementation of the state's hazardous sites cleanup program and working in EPD's drinking water, water quality and solid waste programs. He began his career in state government back in 1979 as a legislative aide to the House Natural Resources and Game and Fish Committees in the Georgia General Assembly where he spent two years analyzing and drafting environmental legislation. Tim graduated from the University of Georgia's School of Forest Resources with a Bachelor's in Forest Hydrology.