

Jared Hasty is passionate about relationships, learning and aviation. That passion has led him on an amazing journey earning a BS in Aviation Management from Auburn University, an MBA from Georgia Tech, playing collegiate sports, traveling the globe as a corporate pilot, managing and chartering a fleet of aircraft, diving in to data analytics, transacting over half a billion in aircraft on behalf of HNWI's and corporations, and co-founding a boutique private jet brokerage firm...Piedmont Jets. He holds certifications from the University of Beijing, UVA's Darden School of Business, Georgia State University, and is an FAA ATP rated pilot with over 5,000 hours and multiple jet type ratings.

Jared's world revolves around his beautiful wife and two kids. He serves on multiple boards and volunteers via his church and other local charities. When there is spare time, he is outdoors adventurer, jam band junkie, avid aviator, painter, and loves reading.